Berlin, 18th—The negotiations for a commercial treaty with China have been concluded and will be submitted to the Reichstag.

Rome, 18th—It is generally thought that the Pope's Jubilee will not be such an important affair as was expected. The Alsatian and Irish pilgrims are expected in a few days.

THE WINE PROSPECTS.

Yesterday's telegrams from Mendoza are of a deplorable character, for they inform us that the grape-crop has been utterly destroyed by locusts, causing an estimated loss of 15,000,000$ to that ill-starred Province. Whenever statistics are brought into play in Spanish countries exaggeration seems inevitable, and we have positive proof of this before us in the present instance. The total area of Mendoza vineyards is 16,000 hectares or 40,000 acres, of which one-third is recently planted and not yet productive. At the ordinary yield of two tons of grapes per acre we may estimate the crop of a fairly good year at 60,000 tons, sufficient to produce 6,000,000 gallons wine.

The usual price of grapes at Mendoza (1891-92) has been 100$ currency per ton, and hence if the whole crop be destroyed, as is stated, the province will sustain a loss of 6,000,000$ currency. This would be a very serious blow to Mendoza, since the total yearly value of agricultural and pastoral products does not exceed 19,000,000$ currency (see Hand-book p. 443). In other words the loss of the grape-crop would be equivalent to that of one-third of all the rural products of the province. This is without taking account of the more permanent injury that the locusts might do by destroying the vines and thus obliterating the work of years. A visitation of this kind has, moreover, a lamentable effect in terrifying the poor husbandman from again turning his labors to vine-growing. Let us, meantime, hope that the news is greatly exaggerated.

The area under vines in Mendoza is one-half of that in all the Republic: consequently a loss of the grape crop of that province would reduce the vintage of Argentina to something about 5,500,000 gallons, or one-fourth of the quantity required for consumption. According to the report of the Finance Department (1892) the consumption is made up thus:—

| | Gallons |
|---|---|
| Imported...... | 7,200,000 |
| Argentine..... | 10,200,000 |
| Manufactured.. | 6,600,000 |
| Total...... | 24,000,000 |

If the production of native wine this year be diminished by 5,000,000 gallons we may look for an increase both in the quantity imported and in what is manufactured. The imports of European wine will probably reach 11,000.000 or 12,000,000 gallons, and the spurious or manufactured article 8,000,000 gallons.

This last description of Argentine industry is one of the most infamous and prejudicial that can be imagined: the wines in question are made of raisins, alcohol, old boots &c., and cause an excessive mortality among our population. We do not suppose that anything we can say will check this nefarious trade: we merely point to it as an evil, against which the public must be on its guard.

Wine, in our climate, is as necessary an item of food as meat or bread, and the productive power of the Argentine nation would be greater than it is if we could have a sufficient supply of cheap, wholesome wine, say 10 gallons per inhabitant, a very moderate allowance compared with the ordinary consumption in France, Spain or Italy. But for the oppressive duties (75 per cent) that at present weigh upon common wine we should import 30,000,000 gallons yearly, and then we should have none of the manufactured "wines" that are murdering our people.

There is meantime a great future for Argentina in the production of real wines (if the wicked manufactures be suppressed by the strong arm of the Law), since the soil or climate of 7 of our provinces are eminently suited for vineyards. The world is at present growing too much wheat, as we shewed yesterday in an article based on the Miller's figures; but the supply of wine is running short, while the population of Europe increases.

The vintage of the world at various dates shewed approximately as follows:

| | Barrels of 40 gallons. |
|---|---|
| 1820...... | 44,000,000 |
| 1850...... | 57,500,000 |
| 1888...... | 67,700,000 |

The vintage of late years has averaged as follows:—

| | Barrels, 40 gals. |
|---|---|
| Mediterranean...... | 52,600,000 |
| Germany, Austria, &c | 12,700,000 |
| Europe............ | 65,300,000 |
| U. States........... | 500,000 |
| Chile............... | 600,000 |
| Argentina.......... | 250,000 |
| Cape Colony....... | 100,000 |
| Australia.......... | 50,000 |
| Algeria............ | 1,100,000 |
| Total...... | 67,900,000 |

Consumption is about 70,000,000 barrels, of which 2,000,000 barrels are not properly wine at all, but compounds of alcohol and old boots of the class above described.

We need scarcely add that the more the wine-duties are raised by Congress the more flourishing will be in Buenos Ayres the manufacture of spurious wines, and the larger revenue will our Municipality derive from the sale of graves in the Chacarita Cemetery.

PROVINCE OF BUENOS AYRES.

BUDGET FOR 1893.

Yesterday the La Plata Legislature published a law to the effect that the Budget for 1893 should run on the same lines as that for the current year. Nobody will be surprised to hear that the Minister announces a surplus of $270,000, for we cannot call to mind any budget, national or provincial, in the last ten years, that did not predict a surplus.

According to the late Finance Minister, Dr. Moreno, the revenues since 1890 have shewn an annual deficit of $11,000,000 or upwards, viz:—

| | $ currency 1890 | 1891 |
|---|---|---|
| Revenue..... | 9,810,000 | 9,000,000 |
| Expenditure.. | 20,860,000 | 20,500,000 |
| Deficit...... | 11,050,000 | 11,500,000 |

He further stated that the collective deficit for the years 1889-91 amounted to $33,000,000. Also that the interest on public debt in 1892 would require:—

| | $ currency |
|---|---|
| Foreign coupons... | 10,100,000 |
| Home „ ........ | 3,000,000 |
| Total per an....... | 13,100,000 |

This would be apparently more than the total revenue of the Province, which Dr. Moreno estimated as follows:—

| | $ currency. |
|---|---|
| Property-tax.... | 1,910,000 |
| Stamps......... | 1,850,000 |
| Licenses ....... | 950,000 |
| Banks &c...... | 4,295,000 |
| Total.......... | 9,005,000 |

We must, however, take into account that Dr. Moreno's estimate was made at an epoch of painful depression, a year ago, and hence we prefer to forecast the revenue for 1893 at 11,000,000 $ currency. Our estimate compares with that of the Minister (Irigoyen) for 1893 thus—

| | Minister $ currency | STANDARD $ currency |
|---|---|---|
| Property-tax.... | 2 800,000 | 2,600,000 |
| Stamps........ | 3,600,000 | 3,000,000 |
| Licenses....... | 1,100,000 | 1,100,000 |
| Prov. Bank..... | 1,140,000 | — |
| School-tax..... | 2,260,000 | 2,200,000 |
| Sundries....... | 2,112,000 | 2,100,000 |
| Total ...... | 13,012,000 | 11,000,000 |

We cannot entertain the idea of the Government getting any more money out of the Provincial Bank, on whatever pretext, seeing that the unfortunate depositors are shamefully defrauded of their honest savings. The National Government in April 1891 guaranteed the deposits, and it is high time that President Saenz-Peña should take the necessary steps to give effect to that guarantee.

The only alteration of any importance that we find in the Budget now published is an additional one per mil in the Property-tax. Meantime it will be seen that with the exception of 1,140,000$ from the Provincial Bank, on which the Minister relies, his estimates do not materially differ from ours, as regards income.

But, when he estimates expenditure at 12,740,00$ we consider that he is very wide of the mark. Official returns shew that the expenditure has in late years averaged 20,000,000$. We believe that a respectable and prudent Government might manage to pay its way for 14,000,000$ (of course excluding the service of foreign debt), and if even the expenditure be reduced to this amount we shall heartily rejoice. This would, however, leave a deficit of 3,000,000$, and we cannot see how it is to be met.

THE CONGO MAILS.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

GENERAL TOPICS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Oct. 19th

There is little to be said on general matters by this mail. As the "Thames" will follow quickly my principal business is to enclose rather important articles from the Times and Financial News on the Baring Estate in connection with the Buenos Ayres Water Works and on the improvement in Argentine affairs, and on the prospects of Bondholders and Shareholders. It may be said that everything in the shape of a "boom" in Argentines has already passed off. Yesterday and to-day there was a decided though not serious decline in South American quotations. Truth nevertheless appears with another warm-hearted stoking of the fires of hope and speculation in the things that are Argentine, whilst Mr. George Drabble, who so recently raised the spirits of Central Argentine shareholders, has in a speech of the old sort, full of facts, figures and pleasant personal reminiscences of Pampaland, sent away the interested in the Buenos Ayres Western Railway filled with visions of wire fencing and increased dividends. The proposed extension from Bragado to Lincoln was unanimously approved, leaving the mode of raising the amount of capital required—only two or three hundred thousand pounds—to the decision of the directors. Mr. Drabble spoke of resorting to the unissued debentures, but that method is not finally decided upon. He also referred in kindly terms to the new President, Dr. Saenz Peña, with whom, as a young man, he was intimate. Mr. Drabble made us weep by alluding to days gone by when we could ride for leagues from one estancia to another in the camp of Buenos Ayres without meeting a greater obstruction than a biscacha hole. In these days of wire-fencing, which is an emblem of civilisation, much will be expected of the Argentine people and their administration. "The crops are splendid," says Mr. Roberts, the manager of the Western Railway, in his report to his London directors. Yes, but put not your faith in crops. Something more is wanted than that. We cannot be hard upon you, for we are not here by any means up to the level of modern economic ideals.

Mr. Henry Dunning McLeod, the well known writer on banking and on the economic value of credit, has written to the papers an interesting letter on the rupee question. He seems to think that, looking at the yearly increasing production of silver, there is no reason why the exchange value of the rupee should not before long decline to 6d. It is now 1s. 3d.; and the silver market today continues to fall. What is to be done? Mr. McLeod does not tell us. That is the worst of hobby-men. He is, however, quite sound on the silver question in general and gives two causes for the recent decline in the value of silver—"the enormously increased production" and "the very great increase in India Council bills of recent years." He gives us the statistics of the United States Mint, showing that in the world the production of silver has increased from 63,267,000 ounces in 1873 to 143,550,000 in 1891. The increase seems to have slightly fluctuated up to 1881, since which date it has steadily increased year by year. At the latter date the yield was 78,890,000. In 1882 it was 86,470,000. "Every economist," says Mr. McLeod, "knows that credits— i. e. rights of action for the payment of money, whether written or unwritten—have exactly the same effect on prices and the value of bullion as the metal itself." This, Mr. McLeod tells us in support of his economic hobby, is well known at the Indian Council office. Believing that the value of silver depends not only upon the quantity of gold and silver, but also upon the aggregate of "credits," he calls attention to the number of States in the world which have lately issued inconvertible paper. This is where you come in; and it may interest you to know that "for every fall of 1d in the value of the rupee it is necessary to impose an additional tax of £1,000,000 upon the people of India." You have not £18 to 20 millions sterling to remit to England annually for military pensions and official salaries, but you have a great deal of money to pay to Europe.

Mr. McLeod gives another interesting fact. He says that at some of the great silver mines in Colorado, the cost of production is about a shilling an ounce! We can understand the profits that individuals receive and what the Silver Question means in the United States. It is not a much holier question in Manchester.

• • • •

We are beginning to move in London. The London County Council have made the first grand and practical attack upon the old superstitions of political economy, just as His Grace the Duke of Argyll is publishing a big book in their defence. The Council has decided to abolish contractors and middlemen and do its own building in connection with the dwellings of the labourers to be engaged in the large ferry works of the Council East of London bridge. Sir Albert Rollet, at the meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce, gave the first word of command. This is the first shot. Pan and his profits, Dagon and his dividends, are dying.

• • • •

How little you know, who only see the Times, the "Sta-andard" etc. Amongst a knot of active political men yesterday I heard it acknowledged that the Times was quite mad upon the Irish question and the new Government Commission on evicted tenants. But to see the absolute writing and terrorising spasms of the afflicted patient you must read its review to-day of Tom Beach's—Major le Caron's—reminiscences of his life as a "spy." Le Caron himself, to do the wretch justice, whilst fairly exposing the iniquities of the Irish-American leaders, has always a good word for their victims, the Irish people in America and in their own country. But the Times, with a lively recollection of the cost of its own pigottry and virtue, ransacks the terminology of the natural history of vermin and reptilism to beslime the name of Irishman. Madness complete. And so the English people think, for, in spite of it, the constitutional question in which Ireland is interested goes on apace, slowly, but surely. Parliament will meet on January 31st.

• • • •

By the bye, of course, you know who writes the Irish or anti-Irish articles in the Times. It is Mr. Wilson, an Irishman and a born and bred home-ruler. However, who can blame him? He gets fifteen hundred a year for doing it. A dividend. The subtrahend is monopoly. The divisor, want.

What shall we do without our Pall Mall Gazette? It is cooked. Mr. Cook, the old editor, who with his assistant, Mr. Spender, has resigned indignantly, is a first-rate man. He is succeeded by Mr. Cooke, of the Observer; and you know the verbose nothings of the articles of that miserable Sunday rag. Cooke—with the e final—has commenced by lowering the literary tone of the P. M. G. several degrees, and preaching the German alliance so "á propos des bottes" that one almost suspects the paper of being bought by a foreign embassy. The proprietor is one Kop, the non-intoxicant ale man. Our other evening paper, the St. James' Gazette, is owned by another German—the Apollinaris man. With the highest respect for tetotallism, I long to mix something with their liquor. It is said that Mr. Cooke only takes the editorship provisionally. The staff arrangements are not yet complete; but it is understood that the paper will be Liberal Unionist.

The event of the hour is the loss of the P and O steamer [illegible] as we know yet, only 24 of the 200 people on board are saved. Amongst the passengers were thirteen of the garrison of Hong-Kong who had been to Shanghai to play a match at cricket. Only two of the team survive. The ship was caught in a typhoon. At 10 p.m., the seas put out the fires in the engine-room. At 10.30 she had drifted helplessly to a bank or reef in the Pescadores.

Mr. Asquith to-day made a nice long speech to the deputation on the Trafalgar Square question. The deputation went away pleased, promising, as good Socialists, to respect "law and order." We shall know more about it on the anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar Square in November.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

We are glad to note by our esteemed Cordobese contemporary the Porvenir that the Municipal row in Cosquin has been amicaby settled. We confess that this is the first we have heard of the row. Cosquin is better known for its climatic advantages than for its municipal quarrels. In fact it was a general opinion that Cosquin had no municipality, a circumstance which told rather in its favor than otherwise. The Cosquin Municipal row is simply this:—there are two municipalities, and the inhabitants have been driven nearly mad by their bickerings and quarrelings. Excitement reached such a point that at one moment it looked as if either the two corporations would, like grass-hoppers, leave there tails on the field, or the infuriated residents would exterminate both. The timely interference of a prominent member of the Cordobese Cabinet saved the situation. H. E., accompanied by the police band we suppose, went to Cosquin, breakfasted, arranged the quarrel and returned the same day. The Corporators all resigned, and the Cordobese Government is to appoint a committee to manage the affairs of Cosquin until the voting-register be altered and fresh elections called. The usual feature of abnegation on the part of the "concejales" deserves public recognition.

Advices from Tucuman are of an unfavorable character. The Government there has been acting in a rather high-handed way with an unfortunate editor, who has been clapped into prison. As usual, our ill-starred contemporary's crime was saying a little too much about the Chief of Police. The news of the editor's arrest caused great indignation in Tucuman, but the local Government attaches as much importance to the "vox populi" as to the rustling of the foliage in the mountain-forests of the sugary province. The editor was asleep when the police knocked at the door of his house to arrest him. A little son of his opened the door and, seeing the police, "smelt a rat" and told them his father was not in. A few hours afterwards our brother of the pen was caught at the railway station just as he was preparing to get into the train on a visit to a neighbouring sugar-factory. He asked the police if they had a written order for his arrest. They replied in the negative. However, he made no resistance. At the Comisaria he was informed that if he did not "shut up" he would be immediately locked-up. Nice state of affairs this! The Governor of Tucuman is possibly a worthy functionary, but if he goes on like this, the National Government will give him a rap over the knuckles.

Yesterday was another Immigrants' Day that reminded us of the boom: 1900 souls landed from three ocean steamers.

THE ARGENTINE SWITZERLAND.

A SUMMER HOLIDAY OVER THE CORDOBA NORTH WESTERN RAILWAY.

(Ferro-Carril Cordoba y Nor-Oeste.)

IV.

Resuming our journey at 11.25 we run on four kilometres, passing some winding roads cut in the mountains by the English construction engineers, until we arrive at "San Roque" station (kilometre 45), but as yet this place is of little importance consisting only of a small railway building with a few odd "ranchos" scattered around and patches of cultivation here and there. Here we notice, for the first time, the coach road to Cordoba which, before the railway was built, was the only means of communication between this lovely district and the outer world of Cordoba and beyond: the only traffic by road now is the supply of fire-wood for Cordoba conveyed in the native ox cart which announces its advent far in advance by its shrill screaming, the natives never deeming it necessary to grease the wheels. Leaving "San Roque" at 11.40 we pass on through the same class of scenery, open valley with moderate amount of woodland, the ruins of a church being seen half a mile to the left which was destroyed at the time of the bursting of the Dique. At kilometre 50 we enter the little station of "Santa Maria," a pretty little spot which in the future is destined to be a thriving place; at present it consists only of the station house and the usual odd "rancho" here and there, but some very superior new houses have lately been built and also the well-known Dr. Bialet Massé has his lime-works here, which formerly did a very large business with Cordoba, Rosario and other centres, but at present, like most other things, the works are not doing much business; but they are sure to see prosperous days again, as now that the railway is finished, building will rapidly develop.

We now have for the first time the river on the right, and here is noticed the cultivation of tobacco along the river, and what with the willow trees and other green crops gives Santa Maria a very fresh and pleasing aspect. Also from this point a view is obtained for the first time, of the much spoken Sugar Loaf ("Pan de Azucar") mountain of which more anon.

At 11.40 we resume our journey running alongside the river which immediately after leaving Santa Maria is dammed up with a pretty little weir, all on a very miniature scale compared to the great "Dique de San Roque;" this little dam is called the "Dique de Santa Maria." The river now takes some sweeping curves on our right widening out in many parts with many pretty trees on its banks, and everywhere on its course possessing magnificent rocks and stones of many kinds. Some [illegible] minutes after leaving Santa Maria, when taking a curve to the left, suddenly ahead on the right bursts upon our view, many houses glittering in the sunshine, a heterogeneous collection of the primitive "rancho," but now fast being superseded by good modern houses of stone and brick; the river here leaves us and sweeps away to the right round this collection of houses girding it in a semi-circle. At 12.10 we glide into a well laid out station, with many people on the platform and a line of coaches drawn up outside. We have now arrived at the second great 'centre' of interest, so far the most populated place on the line, i. e. beautiful and fashionable Cosquin.

INTERNATIONAL BOAT-RACE.

VICTORY OF THE FRENCH.

The boat-race between eight-oared crews of the London Rowing Club and the Union des Sociétés Françaises de Sports Athlétiques took place this afternoon, and resulted in an easy victory for the Frenchmen, who not only outpaced the Londoners from start to finish, but showed themselves superior at nearly all points of the game.

Andresy, where the race started, is a charming little village on the Seine, fifty minutes from the St. Lazare station. The London crew took a preliminary paddle at 11.30. The Frenchmen arrived later and did not appear on the water until two o'clock, when they remained out five minutes. The course is an admirable one of just two miles down stream from Andresy to Carrieres.

As the crews lay at their stake-boats ready for the start the sky suddenly cleared, and the sun shone out on a gay and animated scene. The race was started at about twenty minutes to four. In the first minute London rowed forty strokes, the Frenchmen contenting themselves with thirty-nine. In spite, however, of their slower stroke the latter went ahead with a surprising rapidity. In three minutes there was more than half a length of daylight between the boats. By this time the Londoners had dropped their stroke to thirty-six, against the thirty-four of the Frenchmen, who, though they were now pulling a winning race, never for a moment relaxed the vigour of their rowing. The Frenchmen, who had never varied in the machine-like regularity and harmony of their rowing, had plenty left up their sleeves, and sailed in comfort able winners by apparently at least two lengths. The verdict of the distance judge, however, was a length and a half. The official time was ten minutes twenty-six seconds.

It is useless to endeavour to explain away this defeat. The Frenchmen were quite as well together as the Englishmen. Their body form was more polished, they say better up to their work; their forward swing was steadier, and as a result their boat was kept travelling more evenly between the strokes than the craft of the Londoners, which dipped at every stroke in a way that seemed to show she was not large enough for her crew. The Londoners were well together, but their swing was short, and they put a tremendous amount of work into every stroke, but the boat never seemed to answer to their efforts. The rowing lacked the peculiar dash and smartness of the French style.

There can be no doubt that the result of the race will enormously encourage the Union in the efforts they are making to promote athletic exercises in France. All the Englishmen here are loud and enthusiastic in their acknowledgments of the unvarying courtesy with which they have been received and of all the efforts that have been made by their French friends to render their stay enjoyable.

VERY REV. DR. M'ALROY.

Many of our camp subscribers will learn with regret of the death of the Very Rev. Dr. M'Alroy, P. P. V. G. Tullamore, which occurred at the end of last September. He was born in the year 1804, at Rahugh, near Kilbeggan, county Westmeath, and came of a very well known family, several of whom entered the priesthood. At an early age the deceased entered the Diocesan Seminary at Navan, where he passed through a distinguished course. In his subsequent career at Maynooth, he became noted for his great ability and learning. After his ordination, in 1836, he returned to his native diocese, where he laboured in many of its parishes, notably at Mullingar, where he ministered during the famine in 1847, and made a name by his self-sacrifices and his devotion to the relief of the distressed which will never be forgotten. After many years of labour he was appointed P. P. of Multyfarnham, and subsequently, in 1857, on the death of Dr. O'Rafferty, was transferred as P. P. of Tullamore and Durrow where to the end of his life he devoted his energies to the advancement of the people. It was he and Father Barton of Castletown Geoghegan who, in 1867, put a stop to the notorious Rochfort-Boyd wholesale evictions in Westmeath. His remains were interred in Durrow, and were followed to the grave by all his parishioners, and by the Corporation and priests of Mullingar, Athlone and Tullamore, as well as by hundreds of people from all parts of Ireland, of all religious professions and shades of opinion. The funeral procession was two miles in length. Dr. Nulty, the Lord Bishop of Meath, officiated at the funeral. Notwithstanding his large income, the deceased clergyman died in a state of poverty, having spent all his savings in the promotion of education and in public charity, and the funeral expenses were defrayed by his two nephews Terence and John McAlroy, of Bracken Mills, and his three cousins, Thomas Maher, J. P. Moyvaughley, J. D. Colgan, J. P. Enfield, and P. Conlon, Horseleap.—Herald.

THE SAN ROQUE BREAKWATER.

Cordoba, Nov. 11th.

Mr. Editor,

In your issue of 13th inst., in the correspondence headed "The Argentine Switzerland", it is stated that the Cordoba inundation of 1890 was caused by the bursting of the Dique of San Roque. Will you please correct this? Neither the Dique nor the waters controlled by the Dique had anything whatever to do with it. The water that caused the disaster of December, 1890, came from the barrancas south of the city.

The rainfall on that occasion was slight outside the Sierra, and the Rio Primera at Cordoba was slightly affected.

The Dique has never burst and is not likely to do so. There are sins (rightly or wrongly) enough recorded against it without adding this additional one.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Boca played first fiddle in the news of the day yesterday by starting a first-chop fire at the top of the morning. The oil deposit of Mr. Clarke-Curtin took fire as the curtain of Night was about to rise, and was burned to the ground in spite of the efforts of the Fire Brigade, two Italian men-of-war's crews, the police and a crowd of other good people. The stock was insured for $25,000 gold and premises for $ 30.000 paper. A sheebang and a china shop alongside were also done for. Then at 2 a.m. a band of banditti armed with Remingtons dashed on board the barque Salvini from boats, threw several bags of wool into them and rowed away, just as the captain of the ship heard them and let fly at them with a fowling-piece. There was no yell, so the captain must have missed. This daring outrage shows what an admirable police and coast-guard service there is at the Boca.

The right (and left) honourable Deputies to Congress met yesterday at 3 p.m., and decided to inform the Senate that Judge Pizarro must be suspended in his functions. They also approved the Patentes Law. They decided to pospone discussion of the Stamp Law till Monday, when the Finance Minister is under orders to attend. House rose at 6.15 p.m.

Matters were cooler on 'Change and hotter off it yesterday. Politics appeared to be pretty dullish.

This is the melancholy anniversary of the founding of La Plata; but there will be none of the usual yearly high jinks, as the Government has n't a copper, and most of the residents wish they had never seen the place.

In our advertisement columns there is a notice that the members of the Barracas Institute are going to give another of their popular concerts on Wednesday the 23rd inst. This Institute is working well, but, like most societies at the present time, is sadly in want of funds, and, as its members, being all working men, are unable to give it financial help, we hope our readers will unite to fill the hall and coffers of the Society on Wednesday.

Our Scotch friends are whetting their appetites for their annual treat of haggis on St. Andrew's day. See advertisement.

Mr. Hartmann, the well-known musical publisher of Calle Florida, has sent us a lot of pianoforte pieces just published and which will have a great success among our philharmonic readers. The compositions are: "Pas de Quatre," played and danced in the Mikado; "Home Sweet Home," very nicely arranged by Kinkel; a fine transcription of the beautiful romance of "Mignon," by Meglio, and finally a new "Boston Valse (No. 4)", by the popular Ramenti, whose celebrated Boston Valse No. 3 has just come out in 24 different arrangements for instruments as well as in a brilliant pianoforte duet. Mr. Hartmann has imported also mountains of folios of serious and comic songs, pianoforte and organ music.

Important news. The Ilustracion Sud Americana won't appear till the 1st prox. It will contain 28 pages and appear twice a month.

There is another Santiago business on the cards in San Luis, where the Governor and the Legislature are stripping for a long-threatened political set-to. National Intervention is bound to go the round of all the provinces, and, when it gets to the last, will have to begin again. Oh! for a Unitarian republic.

Some years ago, in Paris, they were discussing the discoveries of Columbus in the presence of the late Lord Lytton. Colomb, is the French for Columbus, and 'la colombe' is the French for a dove. "It is very singular," some one observed, "that la colombe discovered the Old World and le Colomb discovered the New." "Yes," replied Lord Lytton, "but infinitely more curious is it that the one came from Noah and the other came from Genoa."

The Mendoza Government has taken advantage of the Locusts and Lost Grapes scare to do a little stroke in the "Bono" line, of course "pro bono publico"; and the Legislature has just authorized a fresh issue of Bonds, without making any bones about it.

More disorder in Tucuman, and our esteemed colleague the editor of El Orden locked up. We believe that this is not the first time our brother of the Pen has been laid by the heels.

The latest craze at home is the invention of new dances. Amongst them is a quadrille in which four gentlemen and eight ladies take part. It is especially designed for parties where the male sex is in a minority. Each man has two partners in this National Park quadrille.

The Archbishop, who holds, we believe, much the same opinion as to money being raised for charity by bazaars, theatrical performances etc. as the late Cardinal Manning, is about to issue a pastoral on the subject.

The "boss" strawberries of the republic turned up on our E. T. yesterday. They are wonderful specimens, and beat their own best record this year. Need we say that they came from the renowned beds of our friend Mr. Francis Younger, at Quilmes.

"Did you ever think what you would do if you had the Duke of Westminster's income?" Village Pastor: No; but I have sometimes wondered what the Duke would do if he had mine."

A preacher recently asked a college President what he thought of his sermon. "I heard in it what I hope never to hear again." "What was that?" "The clock strike twice."

We are very happy to hear that the venerable General Gelly y Obes is much bettor, though not quite out of danger yet.

We have to thank Mr. E. Barrie of 567 Calle Rivadavia, the well known gunsmith, for a copy of "Escopetas Modernas," a copiously illustrated work that sporting men will find both useful and interesting.

The Free Thinking and Cosmopolitan Bakers Societies are sending round the hat to keep up the strike of the sons of St. Crispin and leave us all barefooted before Christmas Day.

A gentleman residing in Paris named Agius, is trying to reform the Spanish language in the use of those shabby-genteel letters Q and Z, and has published a work entitled "La Reforma de la ortografia quastellana. The M. V. T. says:—"The Montevideo telegrams recently published in Buenos Aires have heen full of revolutionary and political items of which nothing is known on this side. River Plate telegraphic correspondents are such imaginative fellows."

The show of pretty girls in the Plaza at Montevideo now every evening while the military bands play is more dazzling than ever known before, although the unfortunate place is up to its chin in the crisis. An American just arrived assures us that it is the finest "show" of the kind he has seen in any part of "this" globe. We tried to pump him as to what kind of girls he had seen on other globes, but he wouldn't tell us.

Mrs. Goodsoul—I think it's a shame that the early settlers killed off the Indians the way they did. Miss De Pretty—"Indeed it is. Just think what lovely furs they used to sell for a few glass beads."

We're previously engaged, so far as the Terpsychorean line is concerned, for this evening, but have spare time on hands about dinner hour. We're going to the Anglo-American Society's ball in the Salon La France, and return our best thanks for the invitation sent to us yesterday.

The Santa Fé Government railway has led the way in reducing its freight and fares, owing to the slump in gold, and has lopped off 8 per cent. Now then, managers of private lines, don't wait for any fooling from London, but down with your two f's also.

The genus bore is not unknown here now, though he was, in more simple and enjoyable days, a quarter of a century ago. Mrs. Cross tells, in "Temple Bar," the following anecdote of a story-telling bore by far the worst of all:—"I did not hear it myself; I wish I had, for in years past I often met the hero of the story, Mr. Bonamy Price, and could well appreciate his peculiar power of leadership in talk, a power suggestive of the sound of Scotch bagpipes over and above other musical instruments. On this occasion the leader of talk—some wished he were Lieder Ohne Worte—started the subject of the generally-prevailing ideas about heaven. After the usual hit at the materialistic views of the Mohammedan, he turned to an American gentleman at the table and asked what were his notions on the subject? The Yankee, with his slow, nasal accent and cool manner, commanding attention, replied, "Wa-al, my notion of heaven is that of a quiet, green place, without money and without price."

Yesterday we responded to the pressing invitation of the English Book Exchange of 333 Florida to visit their exhibition of Christmas Cards. We found all they promised: A splendid assortment arranged with care and taste. The Christmas card seems as much in vogue as ever. We saw every imaginable style of design, embellished and reproduced by every known process. The world seems to have reached the Golden Age of the Christmas Card. The E. B. E's. C. C's. are very pretty and suitable for sending home. There are also cards with photographs, representing customs of this country, as published by the English Book Exchange.

We had the pleasure of welcoming the second number of the Gaceta de Noticias yesterday. It devotes its whole mind to the Chicago Exhibition, and intending exhibitors will find it useful. Yesterday there was a big pow-wow at Duran's saloons, getting upstairs a gigantic log of nandubay; and "such a getting upstairs we ne'er did see."

Will any kind subscriber oblige us by inditing a highly humourous moral essay on the sale at auction of the furniture of the burst-up Bolsa at La Plata? The sad event has so prostrated us that we cannot do it ourself.

Another new evening colleague of miniature proportions has entered the E. T, El Heraldo. Its great aim in life is to help to batter down the present wretched state of administrative things in the Queen Province of Buenos Ayres. It begins with a vigorous and rather personal "interview" on the subject.

A colleague informs the world that the Italian torpedo boat Dogali, now in the Docks, was built at "Newvocatte on Time." We presume this means at Newcastle on Tyne; or perhaps Newcastle on Tic, as King Humbert's Government has been rather out at elbows in the R.M D. line for several years past.

THE POET'S SMILE
He worked off a smile of supreme content
As he dropped in his easy chair,
A laugh from his classical lips he sent
And he tumbled his coal black hair.
'T was not that he'd netted a "thou' or so'
Oh no! You need not believe it;
'T was the news that a friend had sent him
A case of Old vatted Glenlivet.

THE POET'S WARNING!
Beware!
Have a care!!
When the bottle is "square"!!
The legitimate metre
Is only the Litre!
The "Special Reserve"
Which wise Drinkers should take
Is Usher's Glenlivet
Don't make a mistake!
For this Blend that we like
And the one we best know
Are the Sole Agents C. English & Co.
Beware! then, oh! Drinkers
Of the square imitation
As taking it once, is its' own ruination
In future I'll take, and never will leave it

ON 'CHANGE.
Friday, November 18th 1892.
Gold Premium.
First Ring.......... 182 00%
Second Ring....... 180.50%
Gold ruled steady and active this morning Covering operations made the premium advance a few points. About four hundred thousand gold dollars changed hands for cash, the premium opening at 182%, rising to 182.50, falling to 179.50%, and closing heavy at 182%. Operations for the end of the month embraced about half a million, opening at 182%, falling to 179%, and closing at 181%. Two hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of December, opening at 182%, falling to 177%, and closing at 178%. The speculation was weak at the closing rates. The premium for the end of January closed at 178%, same as for end of December.
Patriotic Bonds were weak. A big seller entered the market and put down prices; about two hundred thousand were sold at 73.90 to 73.50, closing at 73.70 for cash. Internal Bonds closed at 67.80. Catalinas were dull and weak at 8.60. Municipal Consols opened at 68.50, fell to 67, and closed at 68; the rate for December closed at 68.70. Spanish Bank shares were firm at 108. La Plata Cedulas experienced a fainting fit, dropping like lead from 34 to 33.30 and 33.20.
Exchange showed no improvement. There was a suspicion that the Government took a lot of exchange to-day at current rates. Discounts are easy as ever. Cheques of the Provincial Bank closed this morning at 34½% discount; those of the National Bank fell headlong from 11 to 17% discount, owing to a heavy supply from certain strong quarters. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were quoted at 20% of their face value.

Mr. Norman H. Smith has sold Mr. Alfred Miles' wool from Cabaña Selim, Rafaela, Prov. of Sta. Fé, at $6 the 10 kls; also 1,000 bales alfalfa from same establishment at various prices. Mr. Smith informs us that he has 5,000 sheep, 300 mares, and some horses for sale in the Province of San Luis. (Office, 383 Piedad.)
The gold market opened hard as a nut at the second ring, the premium advancing buoyantly to 184%, but collapsed towards the close of the hour, remaining heavy and weak. About four hundred thousand dollars changed hands for to-morrow: the premium opened at 183¾%, rose to 184, fell rapidly and closed at 180.50%. Over three hundred thousand dollars were sold for the end of the month, the premium closing at 179%. Small operations were done for the end of December, closing at 177¾%. The market closed with a very heavy feeling, and outside on the kerbstone gold, at five o'clock, was quoted at 178% for to-morrow: the speculation is irresistibly bearish. Stocks and shares were neglected at the second ring. La Plata Cedulas were very weak.
The following is a summary of the business effected at the second ring today:—

The deposits of Mr. Clarke Curtin at the Vuelta de Rocha on the Riachuelo were burnt to the ground this morning. The kerosene was all consumed. The insurance companies are let in for 22,000$% gold.

The great property sale of the season was effected yesterday by Don Adolfo Bullrich who knocked down the Progreso Club building, round which so many cherished associations cling, to Don Felix Pico for $506,506. He also sold another historic property, Piedad 639-647, for the Bonorino "testamentaria" for $200,100; bought by one of the heirs, Señora Indalacia Frias de Bonorino.

No less than six steamers are now in the docks whose cargoes cannot be discharged for want of room in the deposits, and there is no remedy but to send the merchandise to the Catalinas deposits, which is not only an inconvenience but a delay, as it appears the Catalinas company have not waggons enough to convey the cargoes. Perhaps the best thing to do, since the Government will not go to any further expense in the building of deposits, is for the Minister to allow private parties to construct them, as it is pretty evident now that the docks are too large for the deposits and the import business has suddenly become so brisk that we have 6 steamers in the docks waiting to discharge their cargoes.

The three new directors join the board of the Banco de la Nacion to-day:—Messrs Pereyra, Uriburu and Alcorta, and the bank discounted yesterday bills and pagarés to the amount of $400,000.

Two of our gas companies have already taken the initiative in reducing their tariffs to a parity with the reduction of gold, the Belgrano Gas Company and the old Gas Company, and the managers deserve every praise for so quickly following the gold market.

Samples of the new wheat from the Esperanza colony were exhibited on the Bolsa yesterday, and experts report them excellent. All the Northern colonies of Santa Fé will have magnificent crops this year, whilst those in the South have suffered from the locust. The wheat market of course has broken away in sympathy with the gold market, and although several contracts of new wheat are offering, nothing yet has been done. We hear of one party who offers to sell on contract 3,000 tons of new wheat at $7, but the business has not been concluded. Maize also is very shaky, 1,500 bags sold in the Central market at $5.45, and 2,000 in the Once at $5.40. But prime lots, in the Once still fetch $5.60. There seems to be no scarcity of maize, it comes in from all quarters, and although the local consumption is very large, still there are heavy lots always offering for export.

The wool market to a certain extent has resisted the fall in gold, and this is attributed to the rather better telegrams from the European market and the great probability that next year Argentine wool will be admitted into the United States. Another good feature is the hardening of the cotton market in Europe. The arrivals of new wools in our market are, not to say, as yet very heavy, and in another week or fortnight will probably be double their present volume. Any further drop in the price of gold will not cause a corresponding fall in wool, as most of the purchasing houses hold limits, which at present prices admit of large transactions; the strange part of this business is that the wool exchange is not felt in the exchange market, and this would indicate that the wool houses months ago drew in anticipation and sold their gold, although the exchange brokers and the bankers persist in saying that the wool has not been drawn for as yet. We shall probably know in a few days, as the exchange will have to be passed for Wednesday's mail.

There is a rumour in Catalinas circles that the creditors are about to take over all the land on the Paseo Julio belonging to the company. This is a very important business, and if carried out would liberate the company from its debts and place it in a better position. We suppose the site of the new hotel would go in on transfer. The creditors would doubtless have to form a new company to build something on these vast sites in order to secure an income; as for the hotel scheme, we hope it is abandoned, as B. Ayres could never support such a monster hotel as that attempted in the boom, and the melancholy foundations of which attest the error; still it would be a good move for the Catalinas Company to pay off their creditors with these lands, which for the last three years have been a species of white elephant.

Mr. Armestro of the War Office has left the Government House and become auctioneer.

Orders have come out from London for the purchase of Provincial Cedulas. There is nothing more astonishing than the unconquered faith of the London market in this unfortunate stock. If the London Bankers sent out orders to purchase the Emprestito 1891 or 1892 we could better understand, for these stocks are bound to go to par, which is 100, on the steady and continued improvement of the market, whilst the Cedulas are dependent on measures by the La Plata Legislature, that at any moment may be passed, which will reduce their present quotations.

Mr. Craik, manager of the Central Argentine, has laid before Government the plans of certain improvements the company propose to make on the Retiro station.

In view of the numerous petitions from Tucuman and Santiago sugar planters and of the approaching crop, the Rosario Railway have begun to build the following branches: Cruz Alta to Lastema sugar mill, 2½ kilometres; Cruz Alta to Concepcion sugar mill, 4 kilometres; Sosa to San Vicente sugar mill, 4½ kilometres. The company are, moreover, building several sidings.

The Finance Minister has given leave to Mr. Miguel Moreno to change 100 National Bank shares for 1891 Bonds, and Mr. S. Viale 1,193 shares for same stock.

Messrs. Kelsey and Co. sold the following wools to-day:—

Paper Money.

Projectors every now and then start up with plans for curing all the economical evils of society by means of an unlimited issue of inconvertible paper. There is, in truth, a great charm in the idea. To be able to defray the expenses of government without taxation, and, in fine, to make the fortune of the whole community, is a brilliant prospect, when once a man is capable of believing that printing a few characters on bits of paper will do it. The philosopher's stone could not be expected to do more.

The substitution of Paper for metallic currency is a national gain: any further increase of Paper beyond this is but a form of robbery.—John Stuart Mill on Inconvertible Paper Currency.

Paper Money properly means paper made legal tender, and not legally convertible into gold, or anything else, at the pleasure of the holders, or at any given period. No part whatever of the value of such paper money is derived from confidense. It circulates because it is made legal tender, and because the use of a circulating medium is indispensable; and its value, supposing the demand to be constant, is in all cases inversely as the quantity in circulation.—

Adam Smith

HORSFORDS PHOSPHATIC BAKING POWDER

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount. What a wonderful result is this!"

The splendid New Beers
'BAVARIA' AND 'PILSEN'
Which have proved such a success.

ANALYSIS

made by Mr. Francisco P. Lavalle of the National Department of Hygiene.

The undersigned certifies that he has examined two samples of Beer, named "BAVARIA" and "PILSEN" which were sent by Mr. John Russell, General Manager of Bieckert's Brewery Company Limited, with the following result:—

| | BAVARIA | PILSEN |
|---|---|---|
| Density ......... | 1.018 | 1.011 |
| Alcohol per 100 in volume.... | 4.50 | 4.65 |
| Extract per 1000 | 59.05 | 46.85 |
| Ash " | 2.90 | 2.50 |
| Sugar(reducing) | 6.16 | 8.33 |
| Acidity in lactic acid .......... | 1.22 | 1.27 |
| Colouring matter.......... | toasted malt and hops | toasted malt and hops |
| Bitter matter .. | | |
| Preserving matter .......... | does not contain | does not contain |
| Phosphoric acid per 1000...... | 0.38 | 0.43 |

From the above analysis it can be seen:—

1st. That the two samples do not contain any substance injurious to health.

2nd. That both are good and fit for consumption.

3rd. That due to their general composition they are similar to the imported beers that bear the same brand.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.
